

Rita Ventura

*Rita Ventura was born in Lisbon, where she lives.
She has studied at FDE - Creative University in Design, where she graduated in Art & Design;
She worked as a creative designer, at RTP (Rádio Televisão Portuguesa), LPM - Comunicação, Boston Media Group, and other companies;
Also worked as a freelance illustrator, scenographer, interior and graphic designer for several business companies.
Simultaneously, she always worked as an artist, having participated in several individual and group shows,
such as the Bienal de Mensaraz, International Art Show of Contemporary Artists, that took place in Fundação de Oeiras, Artes e Etc Gallery, Déjà Vu Gallery, 17th International Art Show of Póvoa de Varzim, IX Bienal - Salão de Artes da Vidigueira, Art show 40 Years of Freedom - Palácio de Infantado, among several other individual shows in alternative art spaces and on her own studio/gallery Mênos.
She is represented in several private collections in Portugal and abroad.
Currently she is mainly dedicated to her work as an artist, and also to other projects related to creativity and art workshops and classes.*