Profile

Sandra is born in 1979 in Lisbon. Passing through several formal experiences, she is now working in small sets that make a reflection about the human individuality and complexity. In other words, what makes us at the same time a individual and a social unity.

Since the end of 2012, she also is working as a assistant sculptor with several artist namely Georg Scheele, Auli Korhonen, Diogo Rosa and Moisés Preto Paulo.

Education

WORKSHOP RAKU, TOMAR - 2017

Workshop of raku with the technical direction of the ceramist José Pinto da Costa.

CENTRO INTERNACIONAL DE ESCULTURA, PORTUGAL - 2009

Professional training period, specially on stone carving. Execution of several stone pieces for other artist and a reproduction in plaster of a XIX century fountain found at palace at Sintra.

BEAUX-ARTS COLLEGE, LISBON UNIVERSITY, PORTUGAL - DEGREE IN SCULPTURE, 2006

Public Art

SINTRA ARTE PUBLICA, SINTRA, 2016/2017

Annual collective exhibition of public art in the historical center of Sintra.

“BRING A FRIEND ALONG”, LOURES, 2013

Public Art sculpture intalled in the Jardim da Paz, Apelação, Loures.

Work made during the O Bairro | O Mundo festival, in collaboration with the Loures Municipality and local schools for improvement and embellishment of social housing spaces.

LES LAPIDIALES, PORT D'ENVAUX, FRANCE - 2010/2011

Art residence to sculpt a piece at a front wall of a quarry, only using non electric tools.

The piece, entitled “The Hand”, is inserted in the theme “Du Abime au Azur” and stands for the effort needed to reach a higher ground, physically and spiritually speaking. Having almost 3 meters high and 7 meters length, it was also a personal challenge.
