Thane: The Sambhaji maidan in Mulund (E) will be abuzz with worshipers of Lord Jagannath for the next five days. A five-day-long festival planned by Jagannath Seva Samiti will have hawans, yagna, keertans and pravachans. Priests, dancers and even prasad have been specially brought from Odisha's Jagannath Puri temple for this auspicious occasion.

The Pancharatra Mahotsav has been happening at various places within Odisha since February 2012 but it is the first time that it has been organised outside the state.

Starting today, it will be inaugurated by priests from Odisha, Baba Sachidananda Das Maharaj, Dibyasingha Deb Maharaj, Sadanan Maharaj and Swami Madhavananda Saraswati from the Chinmaya Mission.

Along with them will be Radha Ranjan Dash, ambassador to India from Jordan, Shivdev Gorowara, consul general, Republic of Seychelles, Dr Arabinda Padhee, chief administrator. The inauguration will take place on January 9 at 6pm, followed by five days of complete devotion to Lord Jagannath.

"This five-day mahotsav will feature the preaching and good deeds of Lord Jagannath as mentioned in the Skand Puran. Also, there will be a chanting of Purushottam Mahatmya's 3,309 shlokas. Eleven priests have been called from Odisha, specially for this. Aarti will be done thrice a day followed by Naam Sankeertana in the morning and evening. Afternoons will be for hawan, wherein the prosperity and good health of the whole world will be looked at.

Idols of Lord Jagannath will be decorated and placed on the stage to be worshiped by devotees," says Sri Dibyasingha Deb Gajapati Maharaj, in charge of all the rituals.

All preachings will be in Hindi for the convenience of devotees. Cultural dance performances like Odissi and Gotipua will be part of the rituals. Dancers have been called from Odisha for this.

A book exhibition, that will have religious books from Puri and also from various religious organisations in the city will be on display and sale for the convenience of devotees.

Pancharatra festival is being organised by different Odisha associations in the city that have come together and formed an apex body called Jagannath Seva Samiti. Mumbai has around 6 lakh people from Odisha.
